Notes and FAQs

An early encashment charge may apply, depending on your policy's terms and conditions. By surrendering/encashing part of your policy, you may also create tax liabilities depending on your personal circumstances. We therefore suggest that you consult your introducer and/or tax adviser and review your policy terms and conditions before submitting this request.

How long does it take to process your request?

We will process your request once we receive all relevant documentation. Providence reserves the right to request additional documentation:

- If the payment bank account details differ from the original and signed application form;
- Where the policyholder's signature has changed or the signature on the surrender request form does not match that held on file;
- Where required, in order to meet regulatory requirements;
- Or any other scenario that requires further clarification.

These additional requirements may delay payment until such documentation is received and we have completed any verification checks.

How will the payment be made?

Payments will be made in the policy currency to a bank account in the policyholder's name. Payments will be made via bank transfer only. See your policy terms and conditions for further details.
